

Coldwater
Community Theatre

Presents

"REHEARSAL FOR DEATH"

A Mystery Comedy In Three Acts

By George Batson

TIBBITS OPERA HOUSE

October 18, 19, and 20 — 8:00 P.M.

1984

CAST

In Order of Appearance

CARRIE	Kathleen Steger
DODO POMEROY	Irene Grimes
EVE WESTMAN	Marisue Taylor
HERB GRANT	J. Richard Colbeck
BOBBY JACKSON	Joe Massey
PEGGY	Cheryl Sheldon
PHIL	Ken Delaney
CHARLIE WITHERSPOON	Terry O'Connell
STELLA CARLISLE	Marty Craig
INSPECTOR BURKE	Bill King
CARROLL	Bill Shoop

THE SCENE

The Auditorium-Stage of the Hall
In a Small Mid-Western City

There Will Be Two Ten Minute Intermissons

PRODUCTION STAFF

PRODUCERS	Christine Wallace-Colbeck Donna Pickering
DIRECTOR	Leon Jett
STAGE MANAGER	Jan Adler
ASSISTANT STAGE MANAGER	Gary Mallernee
HOUSE MANAGER	Tom Rebentisch
PUBLICITY	Cindy Ireland
LIGHTING	Obert Burch
PROPS	Mary Buettner
COSTUMES	Christine Wallace-Colbeck
TICKETS	Lois Ingraham
POSTERS	Christine Wallace-Colbeck
PROGRAMS	Donna Pickering

Special Thanks To:

Williams Apothecary - Tickets

Leon C. Jett - Director

Leon deserves the outstanding "Rookie" of the Year award. A member of C.C.T. for just a year, he made his stage debut in last Fall's production of "Ten Little Indians". Following that he "volunteered" to design and supervise the building of the set for our premiere production of "Hang On To The Horse".

Kathleen Steger

Originally from Wautoma, Wisconsin, Kathy was very active in dramatics in high school. Kathy has recently moved to the Coldwater area and is employed by Peter Eckrich and Sons.

Irene Grimes

Irene's last C.C.T. appearance was as Mrs. Rogers in last Fall's production of "Ten Little Indians". Irene has also worked with Tibbits Summer Theatre and played the role of Aunt Ev in the 1983 season production of "The Miracle Worker".

Marisue Taylor

Marisue graces the C.C.T. stage again after having worked as stage manager on our previous productions of "Ten Little Indians", "Miss Reardon Drinks A Little" and "The Good Doctor". Her last appearance on stage was as the aging star in "California Suite".

J. Richard Colbeck

Back again on the boards after his very successful debut last spring, as first time director of "Hang On To The Horse". "Dear, sweet, lovable - well seasoned veteran of many C.C.T. shows."

Joe Massey

Joe is making his C.C.T. debut in "Rehearsal For Death", but not his first appearance on stage, having done theatre throughout his school years. Joe is a sophomore at Coldwater High.

Cheryl Sheldon

This is Cheryl's second appearance in a Community Theatre production. Previously she performed in "The Good Doctor", "George M.", "H.M.S. Pinafore" and "Guys and Dolls". She is employed as a teacher at Legg Middle School.

Ken Delaney

Another newcomer to our stage, Ken is Assistant News Director at WTVB/WNWN, Coldwater. He is a graduate of Central Michigan University with a major in Broadcasting and Cinematic Arts.

Terry O'Connell

This is Terry's second role in C.C.T. Last Fall he played Captain Lombard in Agatha Christie's "Ten Little Indians". He has also been active in the annual Rotary Show for the last six years. Terry says he had to take a crash course to prepare himself for the role of Charlie Witherspoon.

Marty Craig

Marty is back with us this Fall after her "lady about town" role in "Hang On To The Horse". Marty has given us many fine performances in "Ten Little Indians", "Plaza Suite", "Girl In The Freudian Slip", "The Good Doctor" and "Miss Reardon Drinks A Little". She's also pretty good with a paint brush.

Bill Shoop

Bill is an ever faithful, hard working contributor to Community Theatre. He's so good at building and designing sets that he has become our "resident expert". "If you want it done right, ask Bill!" Once in a while he gets in front of the footlights.

Bill King

This is Bill's first appearance on stage since his Bronson High School days. We're delighted this Thespian decided to join C.C.T.